Dear Mrs. Felter:

Thank you for writing the Governor's office and including the newsletter, The Mixed Blood's Direction. I have been asked to respond in his behalf.

I am somewhat familiar with your struggle in the 1950's, resulting in your separation from federal supervision and membership in the Ute Indian Tribe. I sympathize with you and your membership, however, it is preferred that these matters be handled through the courts and other appropriate remedies of law.

Please contact Forrest S. Cuch, Director, Division of Indian Affairs, for further consideration. Again thank you for your thoughtfulness and consideration.

Sincerely,

Linda Johnson
